OPINION and ORDER

11-cv-806-bbc

On November 13, 2013, the Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit issued an order directing plaintiff Anthony Riach to either pay the required $455 appellate filing fee in this multi-plaintiff case or file a motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis in this court. In response to this order, plaintiff Riach has submitted a motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis and a six-month trust fund account statement.

Plaintiff's request for leave to proceed in forma pauperis on appeal is governed by the 1996 Prison Litigation Reform Act. This means that this court must determine first whether plaintiff's request must be denied either because he has three strikes against him under 28 U.S.C. § 1915(g) or because the appeal is not taken in good faith. Plaintiff does not have three strikes against him and I do not intend to certify that his appeal is not taken in good faith.

However, plaintiff is required to make an initial partial payment of the filing fee that has been calculated from a certified copy of his trust fund account statement for the six-month period immediately preceding the filing of his notice of appeal. 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a)(2). From plaintiff's trust fund account statement, I conclude that he qualifies for indigent status and assess plaintiff an initial partial payment of the $455 fee for filing his appeal in the amount of $37.89.

If plaintiff does not have the money to make the initial partial appeal payment in his regular account, he will have to arrange with prison authorities to pay some or all of the assessment from his release account. The only amount plaintiff must pay at this time is the $37.89 initial partial appeal payment. Before prison officials take any portion of that amount from plaintiff's release account, they may first take from plaintiff's regular account whatever amount up to the full amount plaintiff owes. Plaintiff should show a copy of this order to prison officials to make sure they are aware they should send plaintiff's initial partial appeal payment to this court.

ORDER

IT IS ORDERED that plaintiff Anthony Riach's request for leave to proceed in forma pauperis on appeal is GRANTED. Plaintiff may have until December 11, 2013, in which to submit a check or money order made payable to the clerk of court in the amount of $37.89. If, by December 11, 2013, plaintiff fails to pay the initial partial payment or explain his failure to do so, then I will advise the court of appeals of his noncompliance in paying the assessment so that it may take whatever steps it deems appropriate with respect to this appeal.

Further, the clerk of court is requested to insure that the court's financial records reflect plaintiff's obligation to pay the $37.89 initial partial payment and the remainder of the $455 fee in monthly installments.

Entered this 20th day of November, 2013.
